

Giving Up Your Pet For Adoption

What to Do If You Need to Give Up Your Pet or Horse

Sometimes, life circumstances change, and you may find yourself needing to re-home your beloved pet. At Crazy Dog Lady, we understand that this is a tough decision, and we're here to help you through the process with compassion and support.

Understanding Your Options

Rehoming Your Pet

Making the decision to find a new home for your dog, cat, rabbit, or small pet can be heartbreaking. Before you take that step, explore the support available to help you keep your pet. Crazy Dog Lady offers:

- Pet Food Banks: Assistance with feeding your pet during tough times.
- Low-Cost Veterinary Care: Access to affordable treatment.
- Advice and Tips: Guidance on pet care on a budget.

If you ultimately decide to re-home your pet, here's how to proceed:

How to Start the Process

1. Contact Us: Email a local animal rescue charity or Crazy Dog Lady
2. Share Your Story: The rescue centre will ask you a few questions about your situation and your pet.
3. Complete a Form: The rescue centre provide you with a form to gather more details about your pet, which helps us assist you better.

Important: Please do not abandon your pet. Abandonment is traumatic and dangerous for the animal and makes it much harder to find them a loving new home.

What Happens After Rehoming?

Normally your pet will be:

- Assessed by a Vet: They will receive a thorough health check.
- Matched for Rehoming: The rescue will ensure they get any necessary care and find the right forever home.

Rehoming Your Horse

If you're considering rehoming your horse, Crazy Dog Lady or other animal rescues are here to help. We understand the challenges of caring for a horse, especially during tough financial times.

Support for Rehoming:

- Home Direct Scheme: Your horse can stay with you until a suitable new home is found.
- Referrals to Other Organisations: If we can't assist, we'll help connect you with other welfare organisations.

How to Begin:

1. Contact Us: Email Crazy Dog Lady or another local animal charity
2. Share Your Details: The animal rescue will ask you questions about your horse and provide a form to fill out.

Worried About Your Pet Outliving You?

Many pet owners share concerns about their pets' future if they were to pass away. If you need assistance we could help ensure your pet is cared for in such situations.

Emotional Support During Tough Times

Feeling sad about giving up your pet? You're not alone. Please see the bereavement section of our website for more advice and information. If you need someone to talk to, please reach out.

Final Thoughts

Making the decision to re-home a pet or horse is never easy, but at Crazy Dog Lady, we're committed to helping you navigate this difficult time with understanding and care. Remember, there are always options available, and you don't have to face this alone.